Boxing South Africa appoints Mr Bertram Moses as the new Chief Financial Officer

The vacant position of CFO at Boxing South Africa has now been filled, after the appointment of a seasoned financial practitioner, Mr Betram Moses. Mr Moses is a battle bruised financial practitioner with well over three decades of experience in the financial sector, more especially in the private sector. Having worked in senior positions for entities such as Multichoice, Mnet and recently Hitachi Construction Machinery Africa (Pty) Ltd, we believe Mr Moses will greatly assist Boxing SA in its regeneration pursuit.

As highlighted above, Mr Moses is a key addition to the Boxing South Africa Management Team. His appointment is part of a move to create stability and strengthen good governance in the organisation. Interestingly, Mr Bertram Moses is the second Moses to occupy the office of CFO at Boxing South Africa. From 2015, the office was occupied by Mr Thabang Moses who resigned in 2021.

Mr Moses is already at home at Boxing SA having started on the 6th of June, just as the auditing process of the Boxing South Africa Financial Statements for 2024/2025 by Auditor General commences. His first major task is naturally to oversee this audit process and to guarantee Boxing SA the best audit outcome from this process.
